

Charge of the Recruitment and Retention Committee

The Recruitment and Retention committee designs, develops, and maintains enriching and inclusive community building experiences for students enrolled in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry degree programs. It organizes and supports activities that seek to improve student persistence and graduation rates in an equitable manner. It also organizes activities for diverse prospective students, especially those likely to contribute to and benefit from opportunities within the Department. The committee is in charge of selecting the Ferguson Lecture speaker.