

CSU Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program (CDIP) Application

Deadline to the Office of Graduate Studies: February 11, 2022

The goal of the California State University Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program (CDIP) is to increase the number of faculty with the qualifications, motivation, and skills needed to teach the diverse students of the CSU. The CDIP prepares promising doctoral students for CSU faculty positions by providing financial support, mentorship by CSU faculty and professional development and grant resources.

If you are interested in applying you must first watch the recording of the information session we had in December. Then, you'll work on your application and submit it by Friday, February 11th for feedback.

Here are the items that you will need to submit gradstudies@calstatela.edu by Friday, February 11th, 2022:

- A current curriculum vitae, limited to four pages
- Statement of Qualifications and Motivation, limited to three pages
- Collaborative Plan of Support, co-constructed by CSU Faculty Mentor and applicant
- A recent CSU faculty position announcement in the applicant's general field that has been posed at a CSU campus

If questions come up as you prepare your applications, please contact gradstudies@calstatela.edu