ABOUT CAL STATE LA
California State University, Los Angeles is ranked number one in the nation based on the upward mobility of its students. Founded in 1947, Cal State LA is the premier public comprehensive university in the heart of Los Angeles and is dedicated to the mission of engagement, service, and the public good. The University serves more than 27,000 students and more than 247,000 alumni, who are as diverse as the region we serve. Led by an award-winning faculty, the University offers nationally recognized programs in science, the arts, business, criminal justice, engineering, nursing, education, and the humanities. At Cal State LA we are pushing boundaries, creating new opportunities for discovery and innovation.

ABOUT THE FINE ARTS GALLERY
The Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery is located in the Fine Arts Building at California State University, serving the needs of an urban and diverse university community and providing a forum for investigating a wide range of visual cultures. The Fine Arts Gallery presents cultural exhibits, professional artists, Cal State LA faculty and graduate and undergraduate students year around. This year the gallery is celebrating the 70th anniversary of Cal State LA, opening with the Alumni Exhibition of 15 of the many distinguished alumni artists. All exhibitions are open to the public and the Gallery cordially invites the public to view its exhibitions.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR
Dr. Mika Cho was appointed as Special Assistant to the President for Arts and the director of the Cal State LA Fine Arts Gallery in 2017. Prior to her appointment as the director of the FAG she served as the chair of the Art Department. She is art educator, researcher, educational consultant, curator and visual artist, the last comprising numerous exhibitions at museums and galleries. Her research interests are in art-related and educational issues, which she shares through publications and extensive conference presentations nationally and internationally.
