Performance option students must fulfill three upper division department production/performance participations. This requirement is met through performance in, understudying, directing, dramaturgical work, stage management or assisting on a department production or by special assignment approved by the faculty. Participations will be validated with registration in TA 4100, DANC 4100 or TA 3000. (These courses have been plugged into the road map above - they can be moved and taken at any time.)

Performance majors are required to attend the department general auditions in the fall and spring semester. Any student that does not attend will be ineligible for any performance activity that academic year.
