

Call for Nominations

Outstanding Lecturer Award

About the Award

The Outstanding Lecturer Award recognizes excellence in teaching effectiveness and service to the California State University, Los Angeles campus community. The award is given to one non-tenure track faculty member annually and is presented at the University Convocation in August.

Eligible Lecturers

The following Lecturer(s) in the Department of Biological Sciences is/are eligible to be nominated for selection as the college nominee in the current 2021/22 academic year. Eligibility requirements narrow the list to lecturers with three-year appointments:

Bahrami, Bitá
Chen, Michael
Jayachandran, Sanjay
Jazirehi, Ali
Keushkerian, Maral
Khollesi, Khalil
Mirzatoní, Anahid
Panasyan, Tigran
Torres, Mayra
Wong, Valerie

Nomination Process

Nominations are being accepted from current or previously enrolled students. The nominator must first determine that the eligible lecturer is agreeable to being nominated. A signed nomination letter (limited to 500 words or less) must state the reasons for the nomination and accomplishments of the lecturer. Please be advised that the nomination letter will be available to the lecturer for review and to others with legal access.
