B. REQUIRED COURSES (28 quarter units/ up to 21 semester units*):

With advisor approval select seven 500-level or 5000-level seminars from the lists on the back of this form. Choose no more than 8 quarter units (6 semester units) from a single list.

*NOTE: Whether a student will need four or five elective courses will depend on how many of the seven required courses are completed at the 500-level, as opposed to the 5000-level. 500-level courses are worth 2.67 semester units; the equivalent of 32 semester units of coursework is required to complete the degree with the Comprehensive Examination option. For the Thesis Option, the equivalent of 29 to 30 units of semester coursework is required.

C. ELECTIVES (20 quarter units / up to 15 semester units*):

With advisor approval select four or five 400 or 500 level courses (or 4000 and 5000 level courses) from the lists on the back of this form. Choose no more than 8 quarter units (6 semester units) from any single list. Students may also apply up to 8 quarter units (6 semester units) of 400- or 500-level (or 4000-/5000-level) coursework from outside History to this requirement, with advisor approval.
